Incident comes two weeks after blaze engulfed fourth-floor flat in Toa Payoh housing block

Malakia Monson

An electric bicycle left charging at a void deck caused a fire at Block 238Toa Payoh Lorong 4 last Saturday, hardly two weeks after a blaze engulfed a fourth-floor flat in the same block.

The Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF) said on Monday that 18 people were injured and 240 residents were evacuated from the block, which was located at Tengah Road, which was a preview of the HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles.

Health Amrin Amin called the incentives to complete healthier lifestyles to be launched next year to give people

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

The Ministry of Health is investing $5 million to lower smoking prevalence to 10 per cent by 2024, up from 15 per cent last year, the SCDF said.

Launch of HealthySG Taskforce

Senior Parliamentary Secretary for Health Amy Khor said the taskforce would be launched in Q4 2019, following the launch of HealthySG in Q4 2020.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

Implementation of Inter-agency Physical Activity and Sport Calendar Portal

Senior Parliamentary Secretary for Health Amy Khor said the taskforce would be launched in Q4 2019, following the launch of HealthySG in Q4 2020.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.

HealthySG programme that will be launched next year to give people incentives to complete healthier lifestyles. The programme is expected to encourage residents to adopt healthy habits through surveys and exchanges with trained ambassadors from the Health Promotion Board. It will be integrated with public hospital volunteers.